1. Purpose

a. To publish uniform regulations and supplement the instructions contained in references (a) through (h), and to set forth specific instructions on wearing the uniform and civilian clothing by military personnel, family members, and authorized patrons of service activities at Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS), Cherry Point.

b. This regulation is a punitive Order. Violation of the specific prohibitions and requirements in this Order by Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reserve, Naval personnel and other service personnel wearing Armed Forces of the United States uniforms may result in prosecution under the Uniform Code of Military justice.

2. Cancellation. AirStaO 1020.3A.

11 SEP 1996

3. Information. The uniform, with appropriate insignia, is designed to show at a glance, the branch of service and the grade of the individual authorized to wear it. The uniform represents visual evidence of the authority and responsibility vested in the individual by the United States Government. The wearing of the uniform should be a matter of personal pride to all members of the Armed Forces of the United States. Personnel shall, by their appearance, set an example of neatness and strict conformity with current regulations. All articles of the uniform should be worn with a view toward whether they lend sufficient dignity to the occasions for which they are worn.

a. Uniform of the Day. The seasonal (Summer or Winter) Uniform of the Day is prescribed by the Commander, U. S. Marine Corps Forces, Atlantic annually. Accordingly, the uniform of the day has been prescribed as Camouflage Utilities on Monday through Thursday and Service "C" uniform on Friday. Either all ribbons or personal U.S. decorations with U.S. unit awards, at the individual's option, shall be worn with the Service "C" uniform.

b. Uniform for Leave and Liberty. Service "A," "B," "C," blue dress "B," "C," or "D," and white dress "B" uniforms are authorized year-round for Marines on leave or liberty within the CONUS.

c. The prescribed, alternate, and optional uniforms for Navy personnel at MCAS, Cherry Point are listed in enclosure (1). The corresponding Marine Corps/Navy officer's uniforms for ceremonies and/or special occasions are listed in enclosure (2).

d. The garrison cap will be worn by male personnel with the service uniform, except that the service frame cap may be worn, on an optional basis, when not in formation.

e. Wearing the uniform is prohibited under the following circumstances:

(1) The furtherance of, or participation in political activities, private employment, or commercial interest, which may imply official sponsorship for the activity or interest.

(2) Participation in activities such as picket lines, marches, rallies, or any public demonstration or disturbance which may imply service sanction of the cause for which the demonstration or activity is conducted.

11 SEP 1996

(3) When wearing of the uniform would tend to bring discredit to the Armed Forces.

(4) When specifically prohibited by regulations of the department concerned.

f. Service "B" Uniform. The service "B" uniform may be worn as a working uniform, but is not authorized for formal or semi-formal social events. The wear of the collar insignia on the khaki shirt is optional when the service "A" uniform is worn, however, if the coat is removed the insignia will be worn on the shirt collar.

(1) The service "B" uniform consists of the same items of uniform as the service "A", except that the service coat is not worn.

(2) Female Marines may wear slacks as part of the service "A," "B," or "C" uniforms.

g. Utility Uniform, Camouflaged. This uniform is designated as the working uniform and authorized for wear when in the field, for field type exercises, or for those work conditions where it is not practical to wear the service uniform.

(1) When the utility uniform is worn in garrison, the uniform will be clean and neat in appearance. All Marines are authorized, at the option of the individual, to wear starched or sized camouflage utility uniforms. Form-fit tailoring of the utility uniform is not authorized.

(2) The sleeves on the utility uniform will be rolled up when prescribed by the Commander. When worn with the sleeves rolled up, the sleeves will be rolled with the inside out, forming a roll approximately three inches wide, and rolled to a point approximately two inches above the elbow.

(3) Combat boots, flight boots, and safety shoes worn with the utility uniform will be dyed black and polished with black shoe polish. Utility trousers will be bloused except when safety shoes are worn.

(4) Subject to the above restrictions, utilities may be worn at any time within the confines of the Air Station. Wearing the utility uniform in the service clubs shall be governed by applicable club bylaws.

(5) When authorized for wear aboard the Air Station, the utility uniform may be worn while commuting to and from work to include all travel aboard DOD owned/controlled aircraft. In addition to emergency/maintenance stops, Marines are allowed to make brief, essential stops off-base during duty hours or while commuting to and from their place of duty. Such essential stops include:

(a) When dropping off/picking up children from day care centers or schools.

(b) When purchasing gasoline or other essential driving aids at self-service gas stations.

(c) When dropping off or picking up uniform items at dry cleaners.

(d) When conducting transactions at financial institutions and automatic teller machines for brief, essential stops.

(e) When dropping off or picking up vehicles at repair shops or gas stations.

(f) When conducting business at drive-thru windows where exiting the vehicle is not required.

(g) While purchasing emergency child care or health products at a convenience store or drug store.

(6) Marines are prohibited from wearing the utility uniform as a liberty uniform off-base at restaurants, bars, lounges, pizza parlors, when dealing with public officials (police, courthouse, attorneys), while attending classes/activities or conducting business at education facilities, at commercial airports/bus stations for travel or entering to pickup/drop off passengers, at retail/rental stores, shopping malls and shops for shopping or paying bills, at grocery stores or supermarkets, at movie theaters, mini-golf, or other similar entertainment/recreational or sporting activities.

h. Field Coat. The field coat is authorized for use with the utility uniform only. The following specific instructions apply:

11 SEP 1996

(1) The field coat may be worn with the utility uniform as necessary according to temperature and climatic conditions.

(2) When worn, the field coat will be zipped and snapped/buttoned to within four to six inches of the wearer's neck.

(3) The wearing of the field coat with civilian clothing is prohibited.

(4) The wearing of the field coat with the service uniform is prohibited.

i. Flight Clothing. Aviation clothing is provided for wear by designated flight crew members only. The following restrictions apply when wearing flight clothing:

(1) Flight suits and flight jackets are authorized for wear by personnel directly involved in flight operations.

(2) In addition to flight line areas, flight clothing may be worn anywhere on the Air Station, as a short-term convenience to scheduled flight personnel.

(3) When worn, flight suits will be zipped to within six to eight inches of the wearer's neck. Flight clothing may be worn by authorized personnel while proceeding to and from their off-station place of residence, when riding in a privately owned automobile or when riding a bicycle, motorcycle, or moped. Individuals wearing flight clothing may move by foot in an expeditious manner to and from their quarters in Slocum, Fort Macon, and Hancock village. No off station stops are authorized enroute.

(4) Personnel who have been issued and are required to maintain a flight jacket (either leather or fabric) are permitted to wear the jacket with the service "B" and "C" uniforms anywhere on the Air Station. In addition, the flight jacket may be worn to and from domicile and work areas with the service "B" and "C" uniforms, with no intermediate stops off station. When worn, the flight jacket will be zipped to within six to eight inches of the wearer's neck.

j. Coveralls, Mess Attendant and Crash Crew Uniforms. Coveralls, mess attendant and crash crew uniforms will only be worn in the performance of duties requiring their use. Coveralls, mess attendant "Off-station residences include Slocum, Hancock, and Ft. Macon housing areas. Coveralls, mess attendant and crash uniforms in a clean, serviceable condition may be worn to and from the BEQ's, on-station housing areas, and the work place. Additionally, coveralls, mess attendant and crash crew uniforms may be worn outside the work place to the messhall, MWR service station, 7-Day troop store, and the staff captain convenience store only. When worn outside the work place, the collar rank insignia or the standard leather name patch with rank, last name and initials will be worn."

and crash crew uniforms may not be worn off-station, nor by individuals proceeding to and from their off-station residence.

k. Wear of Service Sweaters by Navy Personnel Serving with the Marine Corps

(1) Those Navy enlisted personnel who wear the Navy service uniform are authorized to wear their issue Navy blue pullover sweater or the optional Marine Corps green service sweater with the camouflage utility uniform.

(2) Navy officers, chief petty officers, and those Navy enlisted personnel who wear Marine Corps service uniforms may continue to wear the Marine Corps green service sweater as is currently authorized.

1. Undershirts. The wearing of undershirts is optional unless otherwise prescribed by the Commander. When removal of the utility jacket is authorized for participants of working parties or other strenuous activities, undershirts are required. Standard undershirts (white/olive green/brown) will not be worn as an outer garment with civilian clothes. When entering or departing the Air Station, the utility jacket must be worn.

m. Women Marine Uniforms. The following regulations are unique to wearing the uniform by women Marines.

(1) Slacks

(a) The wearing of the women's slacks as a working uniform should normally be at the option of the individual Marine; however, commanders may prescribe wearing the skirt or slacks on specific occasions (i.e., formations, ceremonies, etc.) when uniformity is required.

(b) Slacks will not be worn on occasions for which the service skirt would be more appropriate.

(c) When slacks are worn as part of the Blue Dress or service uniform, either black oxfords or black dress flats will be worn at the individuals option, except that oxfords will be prescribed for drill parades and other occasions which require functional uniformity. When slacks and oxfords are worn, either dark hose or black socks will be worn at the individual's option. Dark hose will be worn with slacks and dress flats. Military pumps of any height are not authorized for wear with slacks.

(2) Khaki Shirts (long and short sleeve). The women's khaki shirts are available for purchase through the Marine Corps Exchange and Clothing Sales and approved commercial sources.

n. Name Tags. Name tags shall be of the type authorized by reference (b) and shall be worn as prescribed therein. Commands whose personnel are authorized to wear the name tags are listed below:

(1) Naval Aviation Depot.

(2) Naval Hospital.

(3) Marine Corps Air Station designated personnel only (Career Planners, Military Policemen, Veterinarian Technicians, and Game Wardens).

(4) Fleet Replacement Enlisted Skills Training.

o. Name and Service Tapes. Name and service tapes are mandatory on the camouflaged utility uniform. Plastic name tapes are no longer authorized for wear with the camouflage utility uniform.

p. Physical Fitness Uniform (PT). The ←

q. Civilian Attire

(1) The wearing of civilian attire within service activities is expected to conform to common sense standards of decency, neatness and cleanliness.

(2) Athletic attire which is appropriate for recreation areas is not appropriate for service activities to include the Marine Corps Exchange Mall, Clubs, Commissary, Theater, Bowling Alley, and the Station Library. (Examples are: tank tops, swim wear, running suits, sweat suits, body suits, and any other type of ~~physical training gear~~ ^{athletic attire}). All athletic attire, except swim wear is permitted in all convenience stores, laundromat, dry cleaners, and Marble's Video. Marine Corps traditional PT gear (green ^{uniform} ~~shirt & shorts~~ ^{on green}) and/or optional gray ^{on gray} sports gear are authorized for wear in the Mess Hall only when utilizing the fast food carry-out service during the breakfast meal hours (0700 to 0900).

q. Military Personnel

(1) No part of the prescribed uniform, except those items which are not exclusively military in character, shall be worn with civilian or athletic clothing. Items authorized for wear with civilian clothing by male personnel include the raincoat without insignia, service sweater, gold cuff links and tie bar, footwear, socks, drawers, and undershirts. Undershirts will not be worn as an outer garment when wearing civilian attire. Items authorized for wear by females include the raincoat without insignia, service sweater, footwear, anklets, hose, gloves, scarf's, and handbags.

(2) Civilian clothing shall not be worn while operating a government vehicle unless authorized by competent authority.

(3) Marines may well be associated and identified with the Marine Corps even when not wearing the uniform. Therefore, when civilian clothing is worn, Marines will ensure that their dress and personal appearance are conservative and commensurate with the high standards traditionally associated with the Marine Corps. No eccentricities of dress will be permitted. In accordance with reference (b), wearing earrings by male Marines, under any circumstances, is prohibited. Further, Marines are prohibited from attaching, affixing or displaying objects, articles, jewelry or ornamentation to or through their skin. Female Marines, however, may wear earrings consistent with paragraph 3009 of reference (b).

(4) Tattoos or brands on the neck and head are prohibited. In other areas of the body, tattoos or brands that are prejudicial to good order, discipline and morale or are of a nature to bring discredit upon the Marine Corps are also prohibited.

r. Civilian Personnel. Family members, civilian personnel, retirees, and military personnel in civilian clothing are expected to use good judgment in their choice of wearing apparel and to observe common sense standards of decency, neatness, and cleanliness.

(1) Civilian personnel and family members will not wear the items of military uniform which bear rank or grade insignia or branch of service buttons or devices.

11 SEP 1996

(2) Shoes, sandals, or boots will be worn. Shower shoes are prohibited.

(3) Exceptionally revealing and suggestive clothing shall not be worn.

(4) Clothing with obscene or objectionable wording shall not be worn.

(5) Hair curlers/rollers are not authorized to be worn in Marine Corps Exchange activities, the Commissary, or the Clubs.

(6) It is the responsibility of parents to ensure that their children are dressed appropriately.

s. Personal Appearance. Reference (b) establishes the Marine Corps standards for grooming and personal appearance. Extracts of those standards are reiterated below for information.

(1) Marine and Navy personnel, when wearing the Marine Corps uniform, shall be well groomed at all times.

(2) Except for a mustache, hair may grow on the face only when a medical officer has determined that shaving is temporarily detrimental to the health of the individual. Hair so grown shall be restricted to the medically affected area and will be kept trimmed as close to the skin as possible, but so that an individual's hair if fully extended will be no more than 1/8 of an inch long. This exception in no way constitutes authority to grow a beard. Personnel with conditions which preclude shaving on a permanent or frequent basis will be processed for administrative separation in accordance with references (g) and (h) and must carry a chit from their doctor to identify the condition at all times.

(3) Female Marines may carry an umbrella, black in color, when in the service uniform, but it may not be carried when in utilities.

(4) The wearing of shoulder bags by Marines is not appropriate or necessary and is not authorized when in uniform.

(5) Marines will not carry radios or tape recorders by shoulder straps while in uniforms.

11 SEP 1966

(6) Marines in uniform will wear covers in all vehicles, except when doing so presents a safety hazard.

(7) Marines in uniform will not wear knapsacks or pack-frames that are not government issued.

t. Navy Personnel. Reference (e) delegates local area coordination authority to the Commander, Marine Corps Air Bases, Eastern Area (COMCABEAST) for all naval shore activities and all persons in the naval service located at MCAS, Cherry Point.

(1) Fleet Marine Force Navy Personnel. Navy personnel assigned to Marine Corps units, when wearing Marine Corps uniforms, shall conform to grooming standards established for Marines as directed by this Order.

(2) Non-Fleet Marine Force Navy Personnel. Navy personnel not authorized to wear the Marine Corps uniform will conform to uniform regulations and standards of grooming as outlined in reference (c).

4. Personal Appearance of Patrons Utilizing Clubs. The advisory groups of the Service Clubs will recommend appropriate civilian and military attire authorized in those clubs to the Commanding General.

5. Action

a. Members of this command and tenant commands billeted aboard this Air Station shall conform to these regulations.

b. All officers, staff noncommissioned officers, noncommissioned officers, and petty officers are strictly enjoined to enforce uniform regulations, making on-the-spot corrections as appropriate. Violators of these regulations, when appropriate, will be referred to their unit commanders for disciplinary action.

c. The Commanding Officers/Officers in Charge of medical facilities, the Family Service Complex and all Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Activities will monitor the personal appearance of patrons through spot checks at either the time of entry into the facility or periodic floor checks. Individuals not conforming to dress standards will be requested to leave the facility without service, except for emergency medical service. A copy of the dress standards will be conspicuously posted at each activity.

d. Unit Commanders will:

(1) Promulgate the contents of this Order to all members of their commands.

(2) Ensure that the contents of this Order are promulgated to all incoming personnel as part of the unit check-in procedures.

(3) Post a copy of this Order prominently on all unit bulletin boards.

(4) Take appropriate action against personnel who fail to comply with the uniform regulations contained herein.

6. Concurrence. The Commanding Officer, Naval Aviation Depot, the Commanding Officer, Combat Service Support Detachment 21 and the Commanding Officer, 12th Dental Company concur with the contents of this Order insofar as it pertains to members of their command.

7. Summary of Revision. This Order contains numerous changes throughout and should be read in its entirety. It reflects new changes in the policy regarding wearing the utility uniform off-station.
